Richmond and Hartford concluded their series here yesterday, and, though Richmond in the first part of the game seemed to have cinched a victory, Hartford came in in the sixth and seventh innings and took it away from her, carrying off all the laurels.

The game, while not so well played a the two preceding contests, was, for all that, fought with much interest to the 3,000 cranks who were present, and fursished them about as many sensations as could well be gathered from one game of ball. The players had their hearts in the game, and the rooters were with them. For a time smiles wreathed the faces of all in the grandstand, for Rich mond was ahead, and visions of three straights floated before the eyes of all

DISSIPATED THE SMIES. Hartford's work in the sixth, when four hits were made by them in rapid suc con, dissipated these smiles, but still the rooters did not despair. They knew that the Johnnies would win if there was any ring them onwards. Wells and his boys made the spurt required of them, but the Connecticut lads spurted, too, and the result was that they closed the race a winner by two runs. Richmond had Chesbro in the box, and Fry tossed for Hartford. Fry proved more of a mystery than he had done on Thursday, and the southern lads couldn't find him for as many hits as they had previously done. Chesbro, on the other hand, was not so effective as is his wont, and being hit ten times, he lost his game,

STARTED LIKE A WHIRLWIND. Richmond started off like a whirlwind, in the very first inning the Johnnies began to get in their work, and it was dol-lars to doughnuts that they would win. After two men were out Foster lined out a hit, and went to third on a rank ror. Elsey then got safe on an error of Vickery's, and Reddy scored. Stuart ras the next man up, and, with a neat ome-run drive, he scored both Elsey and himself.

Hartford got into the push in the second inning, and Gastright, making a double, which was followed by a single, driven by Doherty, and another lined out by Vickery, two runs were scored, the last one being assisted in by an error made by Stuart. For a long time the score remained 3 to 2 in Richmond's favor, and it looked very much as if it would stay that way until the close of the game.

DISAPPOINTMENT CAME.

The sixth rolled around, though, and with it came disappointment for the rooters. Two runs were scored on clean alts before the gang realized that it was possible for such a thing to be done, and the game was won by Hartford.

Richmond's heroes not not give up, though. They just kept hammering away, and doing the very best they could, but somehow or other, they couldn't touch Fry, and consequently they could make no runs. Hartford found it easy to make runs, after securing the lead, and in the seventh the Nutmer-Makers made two hits, one of which was a double, and, of course, they scored another man. They didn't do any great things in the eighth, however, and they didn't have to play their ninth, for the game was theirs without it.

BURKEVILLE, VA., September 4 .-(Special.)-The Democrats of this legislative district, composed of the counties of Nottoway and Amelia, assembled in convention here to-day at 2 o'clock. The meeting was harmonious throughout, Mr. R. G. Southall, of Amelia, opened the convention and announced the object for which it had been assembled, and on motion of Judge Mann, Colonel and on motion of Judge Mann, Colonel J. O. Harrison was made chairman and T. B. Rogers secretary. The delegates answering to their names were twelve in number—Judge William H. Mann, J. H. Robertson, J. D. Davis, H. L. Williams, R. S. Bevill, Daniel Maxey, A. C. Bevill, J. E. Harrison, J. W. Folkes, W. O. Seay, and T. R. Rogers. There were four delegates absent. R. S. Bevill placed the name of Mr. James Mann, of Nottoway, in nomination. Those preof Nottoway, in nomination. Those present being unanimously in his favor, he was nomination by acclamation.

Mr. Mann, on notification of his nomination, appeared and made his address of acceptance, declaring himself expa-citly in favor of a more economical administration of the State Government, in order that the increased interest on the State debt might be met without an increased burden of taxation.

Resolutions were passed heartly endorsing the Chicago platform and the candidate of our State ticket and the reelection of John W. Daniel as United States Senator.

Judge W. H. Mann made an impres-

Mr. Hester says that while the scanon has not been favorable to American mills, final results indicate that the extent of the depression has been decidedly over-stated in the public prints and otherwise. The takings, North and South, during the past year, practically all of which have been consumed, were exceeded but twice in the previous seven years. The mills of the North have worked up as much cotton, while those of the South used 128,000 bales more than last year.

Imports of foreign cotton amounted to the equivalent of 196,000 bales.

The cotton market opened steady af a decline of 295 points, Liverpool cables failing to show the expected response to our advance of yesterday, and the avecage of early crop accounts being favorable. Later, the market improved 3st 5 points on the more active positions on covering in anticipation of Monday's heliday and following complaints of shedding, rust, and damage by insects in parts of the cotton belt, while reports from the Fall-River dry-goods district were generally encouraging. Later, however, the market turned easier, and showed a losa of 5 to 6 points, with the market finally steady, at a net loss of 485 points and sales of 31,950 bales.
